PASSENGER TRAFFIC LOSS

Americans Demand Expensive Quality of Service-Southern Postpones Preferred Dividend.

There is practically no dependable market for apot cotton in those parts of the South where the fiber is being picked and brought to the places of sale. Neither foreign nor domestic buyers are doing much of anything at this time, although in former years they were active with former years they were active with plenty of funds on hand to take the of-

One of the chief ends they effect is the discontinuance of the reweighing of freight in car lots en route or at destination, owing to weighing having been done under supervision at the initial point of shipment. The practice thus ended neces-sitated the changing of billing in every nstance where alleged error was discov ered, the reading of one track scale hav-ing to be substituted for another, si-though often investigation made after complaint by shippers showed that the fittal point weight was correct.
